Two Eastern Theaters Take Fire.

Mrs. Langtry's Performance at Oswego, N. Y., Stopped by Flames.

A Few Cool-headed Men Avert a Terrible Disaster.

Fire Breaks Out in the Chicago Opera-house a Few Minu as After the Autience Had Left the Building-The Fine Auditorium Damaged.

By Telegraph to The Times.
OSWEGO (N. Y.), Dec. 12. - [By the Asso clated Press. During Mrs. Langtry's per-formance here today in the Academy of Music as the curtain was about to rise on the last act there was a cry of "fire" from the rear part of the hall, and thick clouds of smoke poured up through a large regis-ter in the middle aisle. The crackling of flames was heard underneath the floor, and the large audience arose panic-stricken.

Cool-headed men sprang upon the stage, and called out to the people that there was no danger. Others mounted their chairs in every part of the house and called upor the people to remain cool. This succeeded in partially quicking the people, and in two minutes the theater was cleared, just as the flames sprang through the floor.

By this time the fire department was at hand, and streams of water were pouring into the building. The fire was soon extinguished. It caught from an overheated furnace it caught from an overneate infrace directly underneath the center asia and near the main entrance. But for its timely discovery it would have shut off the people from the main door and there would have been a terrible scene, as the house was packed. packed.

CHICAGO OPERA-HOUSE ON FIPE.

CHICAGO, Dec. 12.—Just twenty minutes after the auditorium of the Chicago Operahouse had been emptied of the immense house had been emptied of the immense audience who had witnessed McCauil's Opera Company produce Lorratine tonight, the employed ciosing up the house discovered fire in the top gallery. Some time was wasted in trying to extinguish it with Babcocks and other appliances, and when the fire department was summoned the flames had gained a good headway. The auditorium had to be ilooded with water, and all the furniture, frescoing, etc., in the body of the house were ruined, entailing a loss of $15,000. The only damage to the remainder of the building is by smoke and water, and cannot be estimated tonight. The building, which is a ten-story fire-proof structure, sustained its reputation of "fire-proof," as nothing but the woodwork in the auditorium burned.

The fire was caused by the breaking of a lantern which one of the employes was using in the galleries. The oil from it set fire to the woodwork, and the delay in giving the alarm caused a disastrous spread of the flames.

FEDERATION OF LABOR.

The "Strike Fund" Question Still Awaiting settlement. St. Louis, Dec. 12.—[By the Associated Press. | The American Federation of Labor resumed its session this morning. President Gompers appointed a special committee to report on the eight-hour section of his annual address. In it he suggested the formation of an eight-hour agitation in all cities and towns to concentrate the move-ment, and that on February 27th next mass meetings on the subject be held all over the country. The question of a "strike fund" was referred back to the committee. All other recommendations were adopted.

Secretary McGuire read his report and recommended that six organizers be appointed and maintained by the order for the purpose of increasing the membership, and that measures be taken toward inducing organized railroad employés of the country to become affiliated with the Federation of Labor. After the reference of several resolution to committees the meet ing adjourned until tomorrow.

Her Ladyship's Son a Forger.

Newark (N. J.), Dec. 12—1t has been settled beyond a doubt that Edward F. Honeywood, who was arrested in this city on Monday night for forgery, is the son of Lady Honeywood of England. He elaims to have been sent to New Zealand to reform, and that on his return to England he was kept by his brother, Sir John, until he got his share of the property, 415.000, which he soon squandered and was then induced to come to America.

SNOUT IN TANEY'S COURT.

A Few Innocent Chickens Get Neighborhood in Hot Water-Counterfeit Money in Circulation in This City-Some Interesting

In the absence of Justice B. E. Taney, who left yesterday afternoon for a brief vacation, the judicial tripod was occupied by Judge Bragg, who had up for trial before him quite an interesting case, in which a nasty, malodorous little black pig, with four white legs and a white snout, was the main object of interest. Some time ago P. Sepulyeda was arrested on a charge of grand larceny, at the instigation of A. C. Domin-guez, for the theft of the above-described porker. Both defendant and complainant are ranchers near San Bernardino, and both are ranchers near San Bernardino, and both either own, or care for, a number of hogs. The testimony taken yesterday, introduced, either on one side or the other, showed up a fine assortment of the best brand of A1 perjury. The prosecution introduced the testimony of some six witnesses to show that the pig in question was the property of Dominguez; that they were well acquainted with its mamma and its 12 little brothers and sisters, and had watched its daily growth with deep interest. The defense introduced also many witnesses who swore the pig beinged to one Ruiz, the son-in-law of the defendant. They were also in full enjoyment of a close acquaintance with the pig's ancestress and its numerous relatives, and it did not belong at all to Dominguez. Defendant's counsel insisted at first that the pig be introduced in court so that the witnesses could swear to its identity there, but the motion was overruled with horror by the court, who, however, effected a compromise by allowing all witnesses and counsel for both sides to take a look at him outside. A curious and anxiously expectant crowd accordingly gathered around an old cheese box just outside the courtroom door, in which the unfortunate beast was confined. The lid was lifted and the amazed porker, grunting and squealing, jumped out and run straight between the legs of the dignified Prosecuting Attorney, nearly upsetting Attorney was just adjusting nis eyeglasses when a wild dash of the pig caused him to drop them. Down stairs darted the frightened animal, with all the spectators at his heels shouting and yelling "Stop him! stop him!" Coming upstairs at the same time was Constable E. D. Smith, who valorously caught the pig by a hindleg and threw him upstairs, where he was soon securely tied up with a rope to the banisters. A close scrutiny of the panting exhibit having been made, all hands returned to court and swore again with refreshing staunchness as to his ownership by either Dominguez or Sepulveda.

The defense stated that they would prove Dominguez was n either own, or care for, a number of hogs. The testimony taken yesterday, introduced,

"AN IRISH CANARY."

A handsomely-set-out garden is or was the pride and delight of James Holmes, a resident in the suburbs. He has for neighbor Mrs. Mary Smith. She is equally as proud of and delighted with a number of yellow-legged Plymouth Rock chickens, of unrivaled scratching power. The dividing fence between the yards of Mr. Holmes and Mrs. Smith is not in the best of repair, and with the usual perversity of fowl nature, Mrs. Smith's flock pecked and pecked until they had made an opening into Mr. Holmes's garden. Early one morning last week Mr. Holmes threw up his bedroom window and saw the entire lot of chickens scratching away at his pet plants, and utterly devastating his garden. He "shood" at them, then threw his boots, hair-brushes and pillows at the nimble scratchers, but without avail. He then tried a few bricks and opprobrious epithets, but beyond slightly laming a rooster, scaring a timid young pullet somewhat and injuring the religious sentiments of an old hen, no great damage ensued. Mrs. Smith heard the noise and saw the bombardment of her pets. Sheordered Mr. Holmes to stoo trying to kill her chickens, but was called, as she stated in Justice Austin's court yesterday, "an Irish canary goat," "fowl flend," and other names. She therefore caused his arrest, and brought a crowd of male and female Sympathizers into court yesterday to prove her charge against him of disturbing the peace. Her own testimony and that of her witnesses was that much harsher terms were also used to her by the defendant. Mr. Holmes pleaded in extenuation the great provocation he had received, and showed the Court a few samples of plants, orange trees and other products of his yard which the chickens had ruined. After due reflection Mr. Holmes was found guilty and fined &25, a decision apparently highly satistactory to the fowl lady and her friends.

Mr. Heiber stated that an entrance had been effected through a small door in the rear of the house, which he found unlocked when he came to his store in the morning. The thieves had then bored a hole through the safe door to the box which holds the comset of the safe door to the box which holds the comthieves had then bored a hole through the safe door to the box which holds the combination, and the lock was smashed with a steel bar and hammer. The safe was only a small affair, and did not require the use of powder. The case was turned over to Detectives Auble and Glass, but up to a late hour last night nothing had been discovered. Helber stated that he had stopped payment on all negotiable paper, and that the reason that he had so much money on hand was because he intended to pay it out this morning. He is all broke up over his loss.

this morning. He is all broke up over his loss.

Another attempt was also made to rob the Cape Horn saloon about the same time that the Heiber burglary was going on. About 2 o'clock, as Officer Charles Stein of the Merchants' Patrol was passing the place, he looked through the window and saw a man taking money from the till. He at first thought it was the proprietor, but to make sure called out to the man, who at once leaped over the counter, leaving his hatchet behind him, and made off, jumping through the window by which he had entered the place. Stein fired a couple of shots after him, but being a swift runner of escaped, but in running stumbled and lost his hat.

NEW CASES.

Two $50,000 Damage Suits Begun Yesterday—Other Suits.
The following actions at law were begun in the Superior Court yesterday:
Elizabeth Laver and Augustur Laver, her husband, sue. Charles J. Sketchley and Granville P. Beauchamp, and allege that in 1887 Mrs. Laver owned a one-fifth interest in the Los Angeles Ostrich Farm, tife remainder being owned by the defendants. She skreed to sell out her share to them for $12,900, and they entered into a contract, when they dissolved their partnership, ceased to carry on the business, surrendered the leasehold interest and otherwise dissipated-the property. The remaining portion of the property is now in their prossession. Mrs. Laver has been ready to convey the property as per contract, but the defendants have never paid her any part of the agreed price. She asks for the enforcement of the contract and for $12,900, with interest.

BALDWIN AND THE CITY.

The kick about the grading of Eighth street between Union and Alvarado, which was so long agitated in the Council, is again was so long agriated in the Council, is again brought up in the courts. Alice N. Pepper and Eucch Pepper have brought action against Superintendent of Streets Baldwin, and complain that the street assessments are made much greater than one-half their are made much greater than one-half their value by the last general assessment. The lot involved was assessed at $150, while the amount levied for street improvement against it was $384, for which the contractors are now suing. The plaintiffs ask for a mandamus compelling the defendant to correct his assessment, or else make a new one in conformity with the law. Plaintiffs say that they never gave any waiver of their rights.

that they never gave any waiver of their rights.

Superintendent Baldwin files an answer. In which he states that the city cannot be held for any contract amounting to more than $500 without a special enactment by the Council; also that the plaintiffs never made any complaint while the work was being done and the assessment being made; also that the property-owners appealed to the Council, who denied the appeal, and its action was final in the premises.

Contractors Woodworth and Crowley have brought suits for unpaid assessments for graveling, grading and curbing Nevada street, between Pico and Rouland. The defendants are William Bogel, S. K. Mellhenny, Ludwig Greenwald and Catherine M. Atchinson, all of whom own lots in the Dunnigan tract.

THE SMITH-CASSON CASE.

One Discharged and the Other Heid for Murder. The preliminary examination of Stephen Smith and Charles Casson, the two boys charged with the murder of Pietro Pagin Sycamore Cañon, on November 3d last, was concluded yesterday morning in Justice Taney's court. At the request of the defense, the proceedings were conducted with closed doors. The defense also specially requested that the evidence taken conclusion of the hearing, and this request was also sustained by the prosecution and the Court, but was entirely slighted by a morning publication. The testimony intro-duced showed that the defendants while out duced showed that the defendants while out hunting on the deceased's ranch were met by him and forced at the muzzle of a rifle to march to the deceased's cabin and there made to deposit their own guns, which Pagliusi told them they could redeem for 55. When they returned with the money the defendants claimed that Pagliusi threatened them with a shotgun and that they then ran away. Pagliusi followed them and leveled his rifle at them. Then Smith turned and presenting a gun he was Yesterday morning when court opened the prosecution moved that Casson be distributed there being no evidence against him, and Casson was ordered discharged from custody. The defendant, Smith, then testified that he fired in self-defense, believing that Pagliusi intended to kill him Justice Taney then ordered that Smith be held to answer, with ball set at $4000.

The matter of establishing some office as a protective agency was discussed at length. Two employment offices were cited as safe and 'reliable, and the one in connection with the Woman's Exchange on East Fourth street was mentioned as a fit auxiliary to this branch of work, the only difficulty being that it was too far out of towns and two little known, as the managers had failed to advertise, and not one in ten knew of its existence.

The chairman thought it wiser to uphold and advertise those already established than to form new ones, and a committee was appointed to confer with the managers of the Woman's Exchange and suggest that they take up this line of work, and establish a branch office down town; said committee to report at the next meeting, which will be held Saturday, December 29th, at the same time and place.

Bids for furnishing supplies of clothing for the jail, County Hospital and County-house at Downey were ordered published in The Times. The bids will be opened December 2011.

The Times. The bids will be opened December 20th.

William Blasdale, P. J. Shaffer, O. P. Chubb, H. F. Gardner and H. Soptien, trustees of the city of Orange, presented a petition in which they state that the city was incorporated April 14, 1888. At that date there were several hundred dollars standing to the credit of the Orange road fund, and since there have been added several hundred more by the payment of delinquent taxes, etc. None of this fund has been used for any improvements within the city, but has been diverted to those parts of Orange road district outside the city. There is now being collected 30 cents per $100 on the assessed value of Orange city real and personal property, levied by the Board of Supervisors since the date of incorporation. The city has always taken care of its streets and roads, and expects so to do hereafter.

Wherefore, the trustees petition that the board ascertain what proportion of the road fund, on hand and to be collected during the present fiscal year, rightly belongs to the city of Orange, and transfer it from the road fund to the city treasury. They ask that a day be set for a hearing.

On motion of Supervisor Ross the petition was filed, and December 20th set for a hearing.

accelved until 10 o'clock a.m., January 2d, 1889; interest at 8 per cent.

A correspondent was ordered notified that the county pays not to exceed $10 for dockets for the new Justices of the Peace, and for nothing more.

The hearing of this matter had drawn a big crowd to the dingy and ill-lighted room where the Board of Supervisors meet. Most of them were residents of the districts referred to in the petitions, and they had all come up from Anaheim and its neighborhood to see that their claims were properly presented. Bill Williams, Esq., appeared as counsel for the petitioners, S. M. White, Esq., and R. F. del Valle, Esq., for the objectors, and District Attorney Dupuy and George W. Knox, Esq., were there as the legal advisers of the board.

ANAHEIM IRRIGATION DISTRICT.

ANAHEIM IRRIGATION DISTRICT. The original petition, bond and notice of iblication was read. Also a petition from George A. Moore and the estate of J. E.

publication was read. Also a petition from George A. Moore and the estate of J. E. McCrary to be included in such district. Also a remonstrance from the residents of the Yorba Irrigation District of the Rancho Cañon de Santa Ana against being included in the proposed district.

The subject in dispute seems to be that the Anaheim Union Water Company has been supplying that city and vicinity with water taken from the Santa Ana River. It has been a steck company and has sold the water directly to consumers. It is supplied by two disches, the Anaheim and the Cajon, the latter of which goes, for some 10 or 12 miles along the foothills, up to the river near the county line.

A petition has been advocated by the Union Water Company, and numerously signed by residents of Anaheim, to organize under the "Wright Act" an irrigating district, to include the city of Anaheim and the adjacent country lying about the "Sand Wash" and the Santa Ana River, and extending from the artesian belt up through the Yorba Irrigating District to the head of the Cajon ditch. This latter ditch is then to be piped and the flumes m de tight, to prevent the wasten do or the district, some 40,000 acres.

Heretofore the water has been bought directly by the consumers. According to the new plan under the Wright Act, the cost of the purchase of the franchise and the improvements will be assessed upon the property in the entire district, while the amount of water allowed to each piece of real estate will be proportioned to its assessed value. The company will, in fact, become a corporation.

In addition, the plan calls for the building of two reservoirs of great capacity, in which it is proposed to catch the surplus water of the winter floods, and use it as a source of supply in summer, when the capacity of the Santa Ana River is not sufficient to supply the way towns depending upon it.

The petition of Moore and the McCrary estate asks for their land at the lower edge of this district to be included in it. To this and the Supervisors settled down to hear all about it.

The petitioners called as witnesses W. McFadden, S. O. Wood, John Hunter, Thoman Strain and Mr. Noler. The objectors called Mr. Stalteger and Marcus-Yorba. All the witnesses were examined and cross-examined at length, and the subject took up the greatest part of the day.

At the close the case was submitted without argument, except that Williams claimed that the board was by statute forbidden to exclude the disputed district. Mr. White argued that as it received no additional benefit to what it already enjoyed, the statute directed its exclusion.

The board, by consent of both parties, reserved its decision to some future time. The disputed question of law wis, on motion of Mr. Martin, referred to the District Attorney, with special instructions to look up the law as to the "additional benefits."

The board then adjourned to December 20th.

A SERIOUS BLUNDER.

A Lady Nearly Prostrated by a Patent Medicine.

A lady well-known in the Western Addition has been a great sufferer for years with indiges-tion and dyspepsia. Struck with the testimonials praising Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla, she sent for a bottle. The druggist, not having it, talked them into taking another sarsaparilla. As the leading sarsaparillas use mineral blood purifiers, the effect of the emptying of foldic of potash into a stomach already distressingly delicate was disastrous, almost prostrating her before the mistake was rectified. She then called upon Mrs. Fowler, of 327 Ellis street, whose name was among those cured by Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. Mrs. Fowler said it was true that it had cured her. Again reassured, the vegetable compound was sent for and gotten. The gentle action of its vegetable stimulants upon the liver, kidneys and digestive organs, and its warm stomach tonics, were the very things needed, and she began improving and was her old self within a fortnight. This sounds like fiction, but the names can be given if necessary.—San Francisco Examiner. sent for a bottle. The druggist, not having it

The petition of Moore and the McCrary estate asks for their land at the lower edge of this district to be included in it. To this no objection was made.

The grand kick is made by the residents of the Yorba Irrigation District, who presented a vehement remonstrance and appeared with two bright lights of the legal profession to back it as against the rather ordinary one of their opponents. They claimed that the Yorbas, who own most of the land, and from whom the district is named, have been in possession for years before the entrance of California into the Union, and that an irrigating ditch, running through their lands from a point in the Santa Ana River, below the Cajon ditch, has been in use all that time. The land and riparian rights of the Yorbas date from early Mexican grants, and have been confirmed by legal decisions in the California courts.

They own some 9000 acres, of which about 1000 are irrigated by their own system. The petitioners assert that by tee new scheme these other 1004 are from the california courts.

The pown some 9000 acres, of which about 1000 are irrigated by their own system. The petitioners assert that by tee he was cheme these other 1004 are could be hardened and the land the reby benefited. This the Yorbas deny and say that if they had wanted to irrigate that land they could have hought the water from the existing Cajon ditch.

The remonstrants further claim that so far from benefiting their property the new irrigating district will be a positive liqury to it. They will be assessed for improvements, plping, etc., and their water supply will remain just as it is now, that being secured to them by the law. On the other hand, the supply of water awarded them from the district will be under the Wright Act apportioned to the assessed value of the property; hence an acre of their land will receive a smaller proportion than a building lot in Anahein, and the latter, not needing the water, will be able to sell it to others. They point out, moreover, that the proposed reservoirs are locate

A TENNESSEE editor offers to take rabbits in exchange for his paper. The conejo de jack on the editorial dining table would beat nothing all hollow.

READERS of the Pasadena local pa pers regret the necessity which compels those journals to dispense with the publication of telegraphic news. The presumption is fair that they will resume when times become easier.

THE San Bernardino Index suggests for the benefit of an offending editorial brother, a kind of "reconstruction that would leave about six feet of mother earth piled upon him." This appears to be equivalent to suggesting that the "esteemed contemporary" be knocked on the editorial head with a large and able-bodied club. These amenities are beautiful to behold.

THE Alta expresses itself upon the Democratic methods employed in the recent campaign in a fit of disgust: The old bandana has disappeared from the busy walks of life. As a nasal convenience it was a success but as a party oriflamme it was a howling failure." This discovery would be important if it were not so late, John.

THE Fresno Republican sizes it up about right, as follows:

"If the Pacific Ceast is not too importunate, and centers upon one man, there may be some chance of securing his appointment to the Cabinet!, but the outlook now is not very favorable for any such honor coming his way."

Ir is said that Nevada covers that strip of California that lies east of the Sierra Madre, in case there is to be any cutting up of this territory. Nevada should take a downward hitch in her vest and apply the bandana to her chin. As it is, she is not able to make a respectable show as a State. What does she want of more territory? Go to! go to the Sierra, Nevada!

Ir is gratifying to note a move in the Senate to investigate election bulldozing in South Carolina. No country or State can long prosper under a republican form of government where the right of suffrage is not free and the count not fair. The South cannot hope to keep itself solid by the continued violation of the natural and constitutional rights of those of its citizens who refuse to bend the knee to Bourbon Democracy.

Land for the Landless-Work for the Idle

There are here many ways in which work might be furnished to men who are willing to work. THE Fresno Republican pictures the condition of the California Democracy's mind and stomach in terms that bor der hard upon the cruel; in fact, it is disposed to "rub it in." This is what the Republican, rising up in its place on a front seat, proceeds to say to the house:

"The Democratic politicians of California are very hungry. That indefinable gnawing for food experienced and so often described by those put upon short rations, has attacked their internal economy. The thought that for one brief session of the State Legislature they can alone look forward with the least hope for a chance to lay up, treasures and fatten their ribs, increases their hunger. They turn their eyes to Washington and benold the receding shadow of Grover Cleveland, followed closely by the staiwart outlines of the coming man, Gen. Harrison, and a cold chill careers adown the spinal column of each member of the noole group. Sadly they look at the mint, the custom-house, the postoffice, the land office and all other places where 'fat takes' await the righteous claim of the battle-scarred victors, and realizing that in all these places that now know them they soon shall be known no more forever, a cloud of impenetrable gioem settles over all."

I think if we should be in public life together a hundred years I would at the end be found good-naturedly holding the ladder for McKinley to climb. If he and I were to go into an orchard where there were but two apples, McKinley would pick both and put one in his pocket and proceed to eat the other, while, with a sly wink, he would ask: 'Ben, do you like apples?' And he is so confoundedly clever about it I would enjoy seeing him munch the fruit about as much as I would eating it myself."

SENATOR VEST, replying to Senator Sherman on the tariff question, showed the usual Bourbon disposition to "kick against the pricks" by fighting the protection principle, though he was compelled to admit that the late election was a triumph for that principle. The question was upon the rate of duty on steel beams, which, after a long debate, was finally fixed at 1 cent per pound, being a reduction of 1-10 of a cent. The Democratic effort was to make it 6-10 of a cent. Vest at last pulled himself down to the 1-cent tandard.

An uncompleted paragraph in yes terday's TIMES, relating to State division, should have read: "We may not get State division just yet, but it is only a question of time, and not of a very long time, either," is the sentiment of a large proportion of the people and journals of Southern California. There are notable exceptions, however. In another article an extract from an opposition journal was incorrectly credited to the Sau Diego Sun. It was from the Bee.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON (D. C.), Dec. 12 .- [By the WASHINGTON (B. C., Dec. 12.—18) the Associated Press.] Senate.—In the Senate but little morning business came up, so the Tariff Bill wasquickly taken up, the question being on the amendment offered by Mr. Jones of Arkansas to admit hoop or band iron, cotton ties, etc., free of duty, instead of taxing it two-tenths of 1 cent per pound additional. The question whether this would be a tax on the cotton-planter, and if so how much, was discussed at length by Messrs. Berry and Hiscock.

Mr. Hiscock replied to Mr. Berry at some length is a speech championing the Senate bill and the protective tariff. In closing he said: "The verdict on this question has been rendered by the people. The Democrats have a chance four years from now to try it over again. This is not the time or the place, so soon after this full discussion, so soon after a rebuke of that sort, for declamation to be indulged in again, and I imagine it will have no effect on this side ssociated Press.] Senate.-In the S

We don't believe that this tariff is robbery. We believe in building up American industries. We have the raw maternal here to make these cotton ties, and we believe the industry can be so successfully established that the effect will be to force down the price of cotton ties.

A colloquy in reference to cotton and to the question whether its price was fixed in the Liverpool market, took place between Senators Reagan, Hiscock and Chace. After its close the cause of the defeat of the Democrats in the last election was brought up, Mr. Reagan claiming that the tariff had not so much to do with it as did the veto of the Dependent Pension Bill and Democratic discontent with the President's civil service policy.

Mr. Chace asked whether the discontent was because the President had not carried out his pledges.

was because the President had not carried out his pledges.

Mr. Reagan: The discontent was because he did not carry out his pledges and because he kept Republicans in office in cases where the law did not require him to do so.

Mr. Dawes: Does the Senator mean to say that the President's party deserted him because he would not break his pledges?

Mr. Reagan: No, sir, I do not mean that.

Mr. Dawes: What do you mean?

Mr. Reagan: It was the President's duty to earry out the law, but it was not his duty to extend the principle of the law to offices that were not covered by it. I mean that there was discontent with the dectrine of civil service reform, and the gentlemen on the other side will soon have evidence of that discontent.

Mr. Hiscock asserted that there was not the president's president's president of the law to office the content of the cont the other side will soon have evidence of that discontent. Mr. Hiscock asserted that there was no evidence of Democratic discontent in the State of New York with the President's civil-service policy, during the last year. Then replying to Mr. Reagan's remarks about agricultural interests in the tariff question, he remmeded him of the fact that the Republicans of the State of New York came down to Harlem River with 85,000 majority, and that part of the State was fairly agricultural; that lowa, a fairly Agricultural State, gave a Republican majority of 75,000 or 80,000. That proved, he said, that the agricultural interest of the country did not consider that it was being injured by the tariff.

Mr. Reagan accounted for it by suggesting that for the 18st twenty years faliacies about the blessings of the tariff had been preached to farmers, and that the last campaign was too short to undo the effect of such preaching.

Mr. Hale stated that the President's tariff paign was too snort to undo the effect of such preaching.

Mr. Hale stated that the President's tariff message had been more extensively circu-lated among farmers of the North and Northwest than any other document for years, the circulation being millions on millions of copies, which the farmers had read and which they had answered in the election The presiding officer at 2 o'clock pre

THE DEMOCRATS.

Another Council Caucus, but No Choice for Chief. The Democratic members of the Council are still all torn up about the city offices, and a vast deal of curbstone and corner caucusing is going on. Besides the street talk, there have been two formal caucuses, one held at Mayor-elect Bryson's office Tuesday afternoon, and another in the Council chamber yesterday afternoon. At the latter meeting Mayor Workman was present, having been invited to take part the latter meeting Mayor Workman was present, having been invited to take part in the deliberations. Anything like a consecutive report of the proceedings is, of course, out of the question, as no reporters were admitted into the hall, and the able statesmen did not always raise their voices high enough to catch everything that transpired through the doors. B. Cohn was not present, not having recovered from his chagrin at being made a catspaw of by the Barrett faction, and it is intimated that he will, metaphorically, "lay for" the big Captain whenever he wants any particular pet project put through—that is, if he does not resign on the first of the year, as he now threatens to do. But then Mr. Cohn has threatened to resign before, on more occasions than one, and there is but little likelihood that he will ever voluntarily lay down the cares of office. After the caucus had adjourned a Tames reporter went through the formality of asking most of the prominent members what had been done, but, in every instance, was informed that the members had been pledged to secrecy, and of course could not talk, the most that any of them would say being that the meeting was a very happy one and that the meeting was a very happy one and that the meeting was a very happy one and that the meeting was a very happy one and that the meeting was a very happy one and that the meeting was a very happy one and that the meeting was a very happy one and that the meeting was a very happy one and that the meeting was a very happy one and the speakers.

It may be stated, however, as a broad nous character—statements not altogether borne out by the long faces of some of the speakers.

It may be stated, however, as a broad proposition that the caucus was a disappointment to both sides. To a certain extent Jake Kuhrts has fallen down, and while he has not absolutely gone over to the "Unit," he is hanging in the balance. This result has been brought about by the saloon men, who are somewhat "warm under the collar" again Chief Benedict, because he had the courage to insist on them closing on election day, and, to get even, have brought all the pressure they can to bear on Kuhrts to have him support some other candidate, and it is possible that they will succeed, although it has not yet been consummated. In case Kuhrts cannot be kept up to the sticking point, and there is still some hope that he may, Terrence Cooney will be the man. Terrence is of limited capacity, but is claimed to be thoroughly honest, and this is being urged in his favor, besides which he is not objectionable to the Republicans. It appears that some one has discovered that Cooney once refused a bribe of $500 when there was but little chance of it ever being found out, and this is being worked for all there is in it, which is shown from a remark made by a leading Republican to a Times reporter yesterday, who in discussing the situation said: "Ah, but you don't known what a man Cooney is it, which is shown from a remark made by a leading Republican to a Times reporter yesterday, who in discussing the situation said: "Ah, but you don't known what a man Cooney is under temptation." Capt. Barrett and Harvey T. b. Wilson made a strong fight for their men, Nick Covarrubias first, and then for Sam Gates. Wilson was especially warm in his advocacy of these gentlemen. Just what arguments were used in behalf of Messrs. Covarrubias and Gates could not be learned, but it is believed to be that they are both "liberal" in the full acceptation of the term. Gates is a recent arrival from Arizona, and but little could be ascertained of his antecedents. Of course everybody knows "Nick," and his candidacy for the place was a surprise. He, however, wanted to bad, and has been putting up various schemes looking to that end, some of which have succeeded, while others have been notably unsuccessful.

have succeeded, while others have been notably unsuccessful.

Kubel, for Clerk of the Council, also got a black eye, and is probably out of the race, as is also Billy Waters. W. R. Price thinks he has the inside track, but it is not beyond the range of possibilities that Teed may be retained, at least until the new charter goes into effect.

Teed is a large improvement on Price.

Dockweller's chances for City Surveyor are good, as he is being urged by the young Democracy, and a man named Mahoney was nominated for Street Superintendent. Dr. Reese is the choice for Health Officer sofar, but Dr. Orme is making a fight for it. The general situation, it will be seen, remains therefore unchanged.

It should be stated, however, that the whole programme is likely to be changed, and there may be several other "flops" before the week is over.

At least one of the offices has been settled, that of Mayor's Clerk, Frank L. Binford, a young man in the employ of the Rapid-transit Company, having been offered and accepted the place. Binford is said to be a capable man, and, as he is a stenographer, will be of great assistance to the Mayor.

Bridgeland and Mr. Scott immediately boarded the Vice-Presidential car from the rear platform. They were net at the door of the smoking-room by Mr. and Mrs. Morton, who had already donned their wraps and were prepared to alight. Col. New was the first to cordially welcome the honored guests and introduced Secretary Halford and Mr. McKee, who welcomed them in the name of Gen. and Mrs. Harrison. The members of the committee and other gentlemen were then introduced, and the party immediately alighted and were escorted through the great rotunda. Carriages were in waiting, and after bidding a number of gentlemen good-night, and thanking them for their presence, the Vice-President-elect assisted Mrs. Morton to a seat and was followed by Mr. McKee and Mr. Halford. The carriage drove rapidly through the city and out North Delaware street to the residence of Gen. Harrison.

As the number of callers increased a small impromptu reception was held, and Gen. Harrison, with Mr. and Mrs. Morton by his side, stood in the back parlor and conversed with the visitors in the most informal manner. When the Citizens' Committee arrived, Mayor Denny, as spokesman, warmly welcomed the Vice-President-elect and his wife to Indianapolis, and extended to them the freedom of the city. He suggested that the State House was a proper and convenient place for a public reception, and said the committee had no doubt that Gov. Gray would gladly tender them the use of the capitol for such purpose.

Mr. Morton, on behalf or his wife and himself, heartly thanked the Mayor for his welcome, and to the committee stated that he would make a reply in the morning regarding the public reception so courteously extended.

There was no understanding between the association and trust in regard to purchasing from the trust rather than from refineries outside the trust. When the Grocers' Association first organized they tried to induce manufacturers fir the sagar trust to fix prices so that all members of their association might be allowed a rebate, but were unsuccessful. Recently some of the members of the association have been able to make such arrangements. Jones recently wrote from America to Edward Heneage, member of Parliament, making inquiries with reference to an affidavit made by a Mr. Benson of Iowa to the effect that his (Benson's) father, a clergyman in Grimsby, had written him a specifi account of the taxing of British workmen to supply funds for President Cleveland's campaign. Mr. Heneage now writes as fol-lows: "There is no clergyman of the name of Benson in Grimsby. Benson's statement is baseless, I sympathize with Englishmen in America who are suffering from such a false and ridiculous charge."

PURE WATER!

There is today no question of sanitary science of greater vital importance to humanily than that of the quality of water entering into our daily domestic economy.

Wholesome water is a prime necessity, and a priceiess blessing to man.

A very valuable and important discovery was made by the Coronado Beach Company a few months since, while investigating the water supply of the Otay Valley, San Diego county. They came upon a series of living springs, the water of which has similar proporties to

THE WAUKESHA WATER.

Clear, bright, agreeable to the eye and refreshing to the tasto; one spring already yields 5,000,000 gallons per day, and other springs can, by development, be made to yield equal quantities.

This water has been piped to South. San Diego, Coronado Heights, and Coronado Beach, and used with the utmost satisfaction and favorable results.

AN ANALYSIS

Made of this late discovery by the celebrated chemist, C. Gibert Wheeler of Chicago, shows that it is exceptionally pure, and is possessed of highly medicinal qualities, which act as directly and favorably on all kidney troubles as THE WAUKESHA WATER The above is fully borne out by the result of its use for several months among the guests of the Hotel del Cor-onado. Many severe cases have been greatly improved, and others completely cured. Mr. H. Ludington, son, and Mr. Edward Elliott, son-in-law, of ex-Gov. Ludington of Wisconsin, both now guests at the Hotel del Coronado, have been using this water, and find the result highly beneficial. They freely, pronounce it equal in its curative powers and remedial qualities to the famous waters of the celebrated Wan-kesha Springs of Wisconsin, which they have used on their table for the past 18 years. E. S. BABCOCK, Jra. President Coronado Beach Company.

The Good Templars-A Trunk of Baby Clothes - The Council - A Chapter of Runaways-Interesting

TARADENA, Dec. 12.—|Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Last evening until 10 o'clock the Tabernacle was crowded with an intel-ligent and music-loving audience. The Dairy Maids were the attraction, and they certainly performed their respective parts in grand style. The Misses Graham, Peck, Munn, Derr, Haskins, Miller, Cramer, Moufort, Camper, Hail, Collis, Blekford, Dun-can, Jarvis, Palmateer, Thompson, Day, Guy, Park, Raymond, Coleman, Nash, Decker, Duncan, Boynton, Davis, McCauldin, the Misses Cook, Mrs. Meyers and Mrs. Graham composed the convention.

After the concert everybody gave himself or herself up to pleasure and sport the remainder of the evening purchasing at the several booths. A number of pretty young ladies in various costumes were scattered about the hali and had a good word for everybody, especially those who were chinking their loose change at the numerous stands. A cow which was imported for the ocasion seemed to attract a great deal of attention in the barnyard of the dairy maids booth. Indeed, the way people locked to see it one would think it was the only bovine this side of Marshalltown. The ice palace was a rare sight for this climate, and one young easterner was so taken up with it that he thought of starting home to resurrect his old sied from among the ceilar rubbish.

The Japanese booth was very artistic in design, and young ladies of the Mikado's realms flitted here and there constantly, serving their customers.

The other booths were well patronized and did a flourishing business, considering it was the opening night.

This evening a supper was served from 5 to 7, and a large number of business men took their meals here.

A very nice social entertainment was held last evening in the vestry-room of the Universalist Church. A very interesting programme was given, consisting of recitations, musical selections, and an address by a local physician on the subject of health. Tomorrow evening the young people of the Methodist Church will hold a sociable in the parlors of the church. Converzaiene will be the order of the evening.

Who Is Your Rest Friend? Who is Your Rest Friend?
Your stomach, of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink, wait until your stom ch is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right—if you are troubled with hearthurs, dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, biliousness, indigestion or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

The writer a few evenings since, while out looking for as item, heard an interesting story, which the party vicen it concerns acknowledges to be correct.

Mrs. Mary R. Gordon, who lives in a tent on Buega Vista street, nearly opposite Baker's Iron Works, was interviewed, and says:

"Yes. I contracted a revere cold two years ago last November, which cettled upon my lungs, and I began to fail rapidly: my throat was sore; I had sharp, shooting pains in my chest, extending through to my shoulder blades; my appeute was poor; for breakfast I scarcely ate anything; sleep didn't refresh me on account of my cough and a stuffed up feeling in my lungs, and I would get up tired and weak in the morning. I came to Los Angeles shortly after, and by the advice of my friends have since lived in a tent so as to get as much fresh air as I could, but I received no benefit, although I tracted with several physicians. I was seldom able to be out of bed incre than two or three days at a time. And the day of the Odd Fellows parade I have advised me to treat no more, thinking that I could not be helped, but I determined to try them. I did so, and began to improve at once; my cough has almost left me, and in six weeks I have gained mine pounds in weight. I am better than I have been for two years and over, and am tankful that the Doctors were brave enough, in spite of the prejudices of other physicians, to let the people know what they can do through the public print, else, perhaps, I would not have heard of them until it was too late."

The reporter called upon the Doctors in their elegant parlors in the Phillips block. North Spring street, and found them eminently prepared to treat all forms of throat and lung diseases. Their inhalers, which can be used at home, are the mest be had over secon. From several cases that have come to our notice we are satisfied that there are no more successful specialists in the country. The above is a drawing of the inhaler used by the Doctors for local treatment of the throat and lungs. The remedy is vaporized, so that it can be inhaled into the most minute sir cells of the lungs, and thus destroy the tuberole, silay inflammation and facilitate expectoration, while constitutional remedies are building up the general shealth. Those at a distance can send for a list of questions and be treated as successfully at home. SUMMARY. California Olivas.

Now a word as to our Slippers.

Here we are at home and we are proud of our slipper department. It is the handsomest we have ever kept in stock. There is not ing that will please a gentleman more than a present of a sir of handsome slippers, and we have some of the finest designs of the ear. We are selling an embroidered velvet slipper with patent leather back, cleantly embridered n chentile are slik. for it and we have hundreds of patterns in velvet and plush from $1.50 to St. Gent's real all gar or sip ers, gent's maroon-colored more coolingers, cont's morton-colored more coolingers, cont's off godt slippers, hadies velvet slipper yelles and at all proces. With slippers as well as snoes we give away toys.

So it isn't necessary to bûy any toys. It isn't necessary to pay the toy stores the outrageous prices they ask. We have enough for the town, and we are giving them away.
